AND RUGS

Easily Tired?

Do you lack ambition, have an habitual feeling of weariness and languid indifference—all are symptoms of a run down condition of the system. This is a condition that should never be allowed to continue for it usually results in a sort of chronic invalidism. Take

Walther's Peptonized Port

It is the best thing in the world to build up such people. A Pittsburg physician says of it: "I know it is good for general debility and indigestion; strengthens the nervous system and makes new life." I always recommend it to my patients." Walther's Peptonized Port is sold in two sizes, 50c and $1.00.

Y. M. C. A. BANQUET.

The friends and members of the Y. M. C. A. gathered in the gymnasium of the association, on Tuesday night, and enjoyed a "feast of reason and flow of soul."

The exercises were opened by an impromptu address of welcome by Secretary Godfrey, who introduced Mr. F. C. Nunemacher, of Louisville, as toastmaster.

Mr. Nunemacher filled the bill to perfection and to the Queen's taste, keeping the audience in a fine humor from start to finish.

Admiral Chapman C. Todd was the first speaker of the evening, and his remarks were both instructive and amusing.

Admiral Todd was followed, in turn, by Judge J. H. Hazelrigg, Judge T. L. Edelen and Judge C. E. Booe, of this city. The closing address was made by Prof. J. C. Acheson, of Danville.

The whole affair was admirably managed, the viands delightful and appetizing, and every one left with an agreeable sense of benefit as well as enjoyment.

FINE OPERATION.

Mrs. J. S. Goodrich has been very ill from the effects of an abscess. On Tuesday afternoon last, Dr. T. C. Evans, of Louisville, and Dr. J. S. Coleman, of this city, assisted by Drs. Hume, Ely and Jenks performed an operation, which has proved very successful, and Mrs. Goodrich is improving. Mrs. Goodrich is a sister of Messrs O. C. and T. E. Kenney, of this city.

FRANKFORT MAN'S SUCCESS.

The many friends of Col. John W. Pruett, in this city, his old home, are congratulating him upon his appointment to $1,600 position as bookkeeper in the Collector of Internal Revenue's office of the Louisville district. Col. Pruett is in every way competent for the place.

Dr. Weaver's Treatment.

Syrup purifies the blood, Cerate heals skin eruptions.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Circuit court convened on Monday afternoon.

There is a heavy civil docket, but an unusually light criminal one.

The following gentlemen compose the grand jury: Colby H. Taylor, foreman; James Stafford, John Hogan, W. C. Lutkemier, Henry Penn, Sandy Holton, Chap Thomas, Josiah Penn, Sanford Polsgrove, Wood McGinnis, Taylor Wingate, Chas. Wright.

The following compose jury No. 2: R. H. Berryman, Lon Harrod, Brush McDaniel, George Huffman, Thomas Hawkins, Smith Gordon, W. K. Toombs, Dave McAllister, Berry P. Witt, J. W. Nickels, John Lucas, Richard Thomasson.

COUNTY COURT DAY.

Monday was county court day and there was a very large attendance of country people.

Quite a lot of horses, cattle, mules and sheep were on the market. The prices reached were not very satisfactory, and not a great many transfers were made.

WHEN YOU GO INTO A DRUG STORE

To get a bottle of Painkiller, examine it carefully to see if it is made by Perry Davis, and don't be persuaded to take something "just as good" because it is a few cents cheaper. There is only one Painkiller, "Perry Davis'." Large bottles 25c and 50c.

DREARY EASTER.

Sunday last was Easter, and was about the coldest and dreariest Easter we ever remember. There was a cold, raw wind blowing all day which made it uncomfortable for the Easter hats, etc.

MAY MUSICAL FESTIVAL, CINCINNATI, O., MAY 11-14TH, 1904.

For the above occasion the Frankfort & Cincinnati Railway will sell round trip tickets from Frankfort to Cincinnati for $3.75. DATES OF SALE—May 11-14th inclusive.

FINAL LIMIT—May 16th, 1904. S. E. HUTTON, G. F. & P. A. 31-td.

THE THRUST OF A LANCE

Is scarcely more agonizing than the recurrent pains in the abdomen which follow the eating of improper food or too free indulgence in ice water. The immediate cause of cramps and colic is often the distention of the bowels by gas. Quick relief follows the use of Perry Davis' Painkiller. Careful housekeepers give it the place of honor in the family medicine chest.
